

Medical Facilities

Health services at our university are provided by the Infirmary unit. Students, administrative and academic staff can benefit from the Infirmary unit that serves both at Topkapı Campus and at South Campus. In the Infirmary where a nurse on both campuses and a physician work, daily polyclinic services, medical intervention and necessary care in case of emergency are provided; and it also refers to the hospital in cases where further examination and treatment are required.