

Student Associations

Clubs, which are the indispensable parts of a university life, enable students at İstinye University to be active at cultural, social responsibility and artistic fields, sports, hobbies as well as their academic studies.

There are over 70 different student clubs at İstinye University. In their time left from their courses; students develop themselves individually, provide intercultural interaction, and realize public serving thanks to the hundreds of events held every year such as talks, concerts, technical trips, sports and social responsibility activities.

All of the students at İstinye University contribute to their personal development thanks to the clubs and they have the proper environment to organize activities in the clubs they are involved, in the fields they are interested in. Our student clubs make their university life more productive by conducting all the social activities that the students need.
