

Radio, Television and Cinema (English)
Bachelor	TR-NQF-HE: Level 6	QF-EHEA: First Cycle	EQF-LLL: Level 6

Occupational Profile of Graduates

Television Channels and Production Companies: Graduates can work in various production processes such as news, series, programs, or documentaries in television channels. They can also work in television and film production companies as producers, directors, cameramen, editors, and in various other roles.

Radio Stations: Graduates of the Radio Television and Cinema department can work as program producers, presenters, news anchors, or technical team members in radio stations.

Digital Media and Internet Platforms: Graduates can work as content creators, social media managers, or digital marketing specialists in digital media agencies or internet platforms.

Advertising and Public Relations Agencies: They can work in advertising agencies and public relations firms as copywriters, creative directors, media planners, PR specialists, and in various other roles.

Cinema and Film Industry: There are various opportunities in the cinema and film industry such as producers, directors, screenwriters, cinematographers, editors, and in other roles.

Educational Institutions: Some graduates may work as academics in colleges or universities to teach radio, television, and cinema-related subjects.

Cultural Institutions and Organizations: Graduates can work in media-related roles for cultural institutions, festivals, events, or organizations.

Freelancing and Independent Projects: Some graduates may choose to work as freelancers or start their own businesses, producing original content and working on independent projects.