Recognition of Prior Learning

Students of Istinye University may be exempted from certain courses in accordance with certain regulations. It is essential that the learning outcomes acclimatize in adapting a course to another course. In this context, the appropriateness of the ECTS values, course hours or contents of the courses is considered to be sufficient. If the decision made by the Exemption and Intuition Commission is approved by the related faculty / institute / college directorate, the student may be exempted from this course and the passing grade is transferred.
