

Child Development
Bachelor	TR-NQF-HE: Level 6	QF-EHEA: First Cycle	EQF-LLL: Level 6

Program Information

The Department of Child Development study the development between 0-18 years of age. It includes the children with atypical development, children with special needs, children who needs protection, children who living in the institution, working children, refugee children, children who are pushed to crime, and children with health problems. While examining the development of those children, it based on the knowledge gained from scientific and current tools, professional knowledge and experience. The department of child development raises child development experts who are offering services to the child, family, other professional professionals and the community through developmental, educational and special support programs tailored to the child's specific needs.