Program Information

Students of the Social Work department, where theoretical and practical courses are offered, will perform an internship in which they will transform their theoretical education into practical applications and skills in the seventh and eighth semesters of their 4-year education. With the 'English Grammar' and 'Professional English' courses given in our department where the medium of instruction is Turkish, they reach a level of English where they can follow the international literature on the field of Social Work and graduate as social workers with an international vision.
