Program Information

The normal duration of the Foreign Trade program is two years. During this period, students are not only provided with face-to-face education but also offered the opportunity to intern in companies engaged in international trade, export and import departments of firms, logistics companies, foreign trade firms, customs consultancy firms, and companies operating in free zones. The program focuses on the fundamental concepts of international trade and trade methodology while aiming to provide students with a professional perspective on events and phenomena in the business world as a foreign trade specialist.
