

Medical Laboratory Techniques
Associate	TR-NQF-HE: Level 5	QF-EHEA: Short Cycle	EQF-LLL: Level 5

Program Information

Istinye University Vocational School of Health Care Services Medical Laboratory Techniques Program began to accept students for the first time in 2016-2017 academic year. The associate degree program offers 2-years formal education. The language of instruction is Turkish.

The medical laboratory technician is the healthcare technician who makes medical analyzes necessary for the diagnosis and treatment of diseases. The importance of modern laboratories with rapidly evolving practices of health sciences is increasing. Medical Laboratory Techniques provide great convenience to doctors and patients with used different diagnosis techniques.